

THE TRI-WEEKLY YEOMAN.

SATURDAY DECEMBER 2, 1871.

To-day has been named by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund for opening bids for the purchase of the stock owned by the State in various turnpikes, under an act to that effect passed by the last Legislature. During the week a great many persons have come to Frankfort for the purpose of inquiry upon the subject, or to put in their bids. Among the number have been the judges of several of the county courts in counties in which the roads lie. Under the act the counties wishing to buy the stock of the roads within their limits have the preference as bidders, other things being equal. We learn, however, that as a general thing, the county courts show no disposition to become purchasers, and that if the stock is sold it will probably be bought up by private individuals, among whom there seems to be considerable activity.

KATIE PUTNAM.—This charming actress has given two entertainments at Major Hall. On both nights the hall was well crowded, and Katie, together with the whole company, have given entire satisfaction to all who have attended. It is seldom that so much talent can be found in a traveling company. The music will compare very well with any that you hear at the large theatres in cities. Katie appears for the last time in two pieces, "Won at Last" and "The Little Rebel." We predict for her a rousing house.

A NEW NOVEL BY A DISTINGUISHED KENTUCKIAN.—We are pleased to be able to announce that a romance from the pen of G. W. Griffin, Esq., the well known literary and ex-journalist of Louisville, and lately appointed Consul to Copenhagen, will soon be issued from the press of Messrs. Claxton, Remson & Wallflower, of Philadelphia. Mr. Griffin's excellent taste, ability, and practical skill in the field of letters, as so happily evinced in his "Studies in literature," give ample assurance of the charming treat in store for all the lovers of fiction in his forthcoming romance. The title of his new book we have not learned; but we trust it will not be long before we shall be able to afford our readers some taste of its quality in the columns of THE YEOMAN.

TO BE HUNG.—William Ayres, at the late term of the Wayne circuit court, was tried and condemned to be hung for murdering Morgan Daffin during the war. When the sentence of death was pronounced by Judge Fox, he said in reply to the usual question, "you may kill the body, but you cannot kill the soul."

THANKSGIVING.—Thanksgiving Day was generally observed by all classes of persons. There were union services at the Methodist Church and services also at the Episcopal Church. The business houses were mostly closed. There was less dissipation than we ever witnessed on a general holiday, and the day had the appearance of a quiet Sabbath.

DECLINES BEING A CANDIDATE.—Some time since, says the Lexington Statesman, "we expressed our preference for the Hon. B. F. Bristow as the Republican candidate for the Vice Presidency. Since then we have received direct information that Gen. Bristow does not desire his friends to urge his nomination—nay, more, asks them not to do it. So urgent has Gen. Bristow made this request that we do not longer feel at liberty to keep his name before the public in that connection."

THANKSGIVING ON STONY.—About seventy-five persons assembled at Pence's Mill on Thanksgiving day. Barbecued mutton and other good things to eat were bountifully supplied. The day was passed in turkey shooting and other sports. All present enjoyed the day exceedingly well.

THE OLD DOMINION.—Mr. D. L. Haly is a progressive man. At considerable expense and much trouble, he has fitted up a fine restaurant. His bar is stocked with the best liquors. The market stall is constantly supplied with game, fish, oysters, and vegetables. Dennis is a faithful business man, and invites the public to give him a trial.

TALL CORN.—Mr. John Dougherty left in our office yesterday a stalk of corn bearing an ear one foot long, the distance from the root to the ear being nine feet. The entire length of the stalk was sixteen feet. The corn was raised on the "Old Bird West farm," on the Kentucky river, one mile and a half below the city.

BOATING-HOUSES.—We will publish free of charge the names of all persons who desire to keep boarders this winter, if they will call at the counting-room of the Yeoman office to-day, and leave their names and the number of boarders they can accommodate.

HALL'S DRUG STORE.—By reference to Dr. Hall's advertisement, it will be seen that his stock is large and varied. His stock of drugs and cigars is of the finest brands. We cheerfully recommend him to the public.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of meeting William M. Carlisle and T. S. Fish, Esqs., the Representatives from Kenton and Boone counties, in the Yeoman office yesterday.

PRIMARY ELECTION.—At a primary election, for sheriff, in Clark county, on Saturday, November 25th, the contest was very close. Jackson received 350 votes, Bush 345, W. Curry 258, A. Curry 51, and Rice 44 votes.

Black and China have received, per tow-bait Dick Fulton, one large best Pittsburg coal, that they are retailing at low figures.

W. D. Allen will commence the publication of his "History of Kentucky" on the first of January.

Dr. Thomas Steele, of Woodford, will spend the winter in Alabama.

If you want a nice set of furs for your wife, go to McClure & Bro's.

RIVER MATTERS.—The Doves left for Louisville yesterday morning and will return to-morrow afternoon. The river has risen two inches in the last twenty-four hours. A letter from Lock No. 5, yesterday, states that the river is rising there, and that the water will be running over the dam to day. This rise will furnish water below for all kinds of navigation.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

Mr. D. Orfan, of Louisville, is in our city with a full stock of Paintings, Chroms, Picture-frames, Brackets, Wall Pockets, Albums, Scrap-books, Writing Desks, Portfolios, Jewels and Toy Boxes, Handkerchiefs, Glove Boxes and Jewel Cases. Picture Card and Tassels, Water Colors, &c.; also a full assortment of Fairchild's gold pens, warranted, which will be sold at very low prices. Mr. Orfan is known as an honest business man in Louisville and in our midst, and deserves the recommendation he will receive by all who know him.

This is a rare chance for our citizens to purchase their gifts for the Parlor and Hallways, without visiting other cities, at OSCAR SEELEY'S.

IN THE CITY.—Messrs. T. W. Varnon, Representative from Lincoln, M. T. Phippen, from Clinton county, and M. T. Christman, late Clerk of the House of Representatives, arrived in the city last evening.

We publish to-day the letter of Hon. John Quincy Adams in support of the Passive policy. It is needless to say that we do not agree with him, and merely give his letter from the prominence of its author.

Among the visitors to the city yesterday were Hon. Richard Hawes, judge of the Bourbon county court, and Hon. Geo. V. Payne, judge of the Scott county court.

The owner of Harry Bassett offers to run him against any horse in the world for $50,000 a side, from one to four miles.

It is reported that mad dogs are quite numerous in the neighborhood of Germantown, Mason county.

The attention of those interested is directed to the notice of W. L. Jett, in another column of the Yeoman.

Thanksgiving day was one of the coldest and most winter-like days we have had thus far this season.

The regular winter term of the Montgomery county circuit court begins on Monday next.

A new Baptist Church will be dedicated in Mt. Sterling on Sunday, December 24th.

All the latest styles of hats at McClure & Bro's.

How.—There are few left in this county for sale. They are selling at four cents.

The New Railroad Enterprise.

The Pennsylvania Central Railroad, in its effort to secure the Short Line Road from Cincinnati to Louisville, was looking for connections with the South through the State of Kentucky. It is not improbable that she may accomplish her great object more advantageously by making Maysville a point at which to strike the Ohio river, and thence obtain access to the interior of Kentucky and through to the South. It is the route first pointed out by the instance of the Indians, who, ascending the mountains from the Ohio, crossed the river at Mayville, and passed, by the easiest grades, to the salt supply at the Upper and Lower Blue Licks, and on to the rich browsing cane brakes of the interior. It is the route of the present Mayville and Lexington Railroad, and originally the great thoroughfare of trade and travel and mail transportation from the east on to Tennessee and North Alabama.

The presence of General Thos. Ewing and other gentlemen, representing the interests of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company, in our city last week, was for the purpose of examining into the practicality and advantages of a connection at this point with our road. The movement contemplates the building of a road from some point in the centre of Ohio, Columbus or Lancaster, to the Ohio river at Aberdeen, crossing to Mayville by a rail-road bridge, and thence proceeding over the Mayville and Lexington Road to the Southern States. The right to operate the Mayville and Lexington Road in connection with the through line of the Pennsylvania Central, if to be obtained either by lease or purchase from the former. We understand that, while the direct line of the Mayville and Lexington Road could give Gen. Ewing and his associates an official assurance that their road could be either leased or purchased, they expressed their individual opinions that some mutually satisfactory arrangement might be made, by which the right to run over their road could be obtained, the connection through Ohio should be made as contemplated.

This, in our view, is a most important undertaking for the interest of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, if she contemplates extending her operations into Kentucky and the Southern States beyond Kentucky. It certainly will enable her to reach the coveted region by the shortest and most practicable route, and at a point lower down upon the Ohio river. The road through Ohio, connecting with the eastern lines, will give to the interior of our own State a shorter route to the seaboard than any leading from Cincinnati, or that yet exists. The Kentucky and Great Eastern was completed will alone compete with it in that respect.

THE ELIZABETHTOWN AND PADUCAH RAILROAD.

On yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting Col. MacLeod, the chief engineer of the Elizabethtown and Paducah railroad. His report of the progress of work on the road is very encouraging. Track laying is going on this side of the crossing of the Henderson and Nashville road; the grading down to the Cumberland river is about completed, while that from the Cumberland to Paducah is progressing satisfactorily. All the iron necessary for the track has been purchased, and most of it is now crossing the ocean, and will soon be in New Orleans. The iron bridge for the Cumberland river is ready for shipment from Louisville. The first mortgage bonds of the road have all been sold. Col. MacLeod can see no reason why the road cannot be finished by the first of June next.

A TRIPLE BRIDAL TO-BE.—On Thursday last, at Lawrenceburg, Ky., by Rev. E. G. Berry, Mr. N. C. Doyle, of Lebanon, Ky., was married to Miss K. E. of Lawrenceburg, on Thursday, at Smithfield, by the same minister. Mr. W. W. Doyle to Miss Alice Lemaster, and Mr. L. W. Doyle to Mrs. M. F. Doyle, all of Smithfield. The three happy couples and attendants, Miss Alice Vanover and Mr. Wm. Hyatt, compose a brilliant bridal party visiting the city on a wedding tour, and are guests of the St. Clair Hotel. —Courier-Journal.

General Sherman on General Grant's Military Peace Policy.

A reporter of the New York Herald reports some remarks made by General Sherman as part of an interview with the Herald just prior to his departure for Europe on the West. General Sherman, when asked about the administration policy in the South, the General said: "I don't care to speak too plainly on these matters. It is not in my life of duty, I think, however, that when the war was ended, war against our brethren of the South should have ceased. The negroes are well disposed and a kindly people, but they are not, as a class, posted in the science of government; they are apt to make mistakes and behave rashly. But I have no doubt whatever that everything will turn out all right in the end. The Union men in the South were never very firm, and some of them were never very true. They were better out of it, but their presence in the late insurrectionary States affords no proper excuse for acts of lawlessness."

"Then, General, you do not approve of the repressive acts of the Federal Government?" "I think a mistake has been made. They are not all mistakes in the South. The majority of the people are the best citizens of the Republic. The young men that I saw of the late Confederate army, and the men of the West who came to the South were capital fellows, though mistaken. These, in my opinion, should have been appointed to position under the Government as marshals, postmasters, internal revenue collectors, and other Federal and State offices, instead of being driven into opposition. I really believe that these young men represented the South, and were ready to cry peace and support the Government. I am sorry they were not treated properly. But it will be all right in the end."

MEETING OF THE BOUREN BAR.

A meeting of the Bourbon bar was held at the office of Messrs. Turner & Brent, on Monday, November 27th, 1871. On motion, Hon. R. Hawes was appointed chairman, and Russell Mann secretary. The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That we approve of the proposed convention of 18th Decr., to convene in Louisville on the 15th of December, 1871. Resolved, 2. That all the members of the Bourbon bar are appointed delegates to attend said convention.

R. HAWES, Chm.
RUSSELL MANN, Secy.

HON. H. H. SKILES.—The Kansas City Bulletin of the 17th says that a one fellow citizen, Hon. H. H. Skiles who has been on a business trip to that city for several weeks, is now confined to his room in consequence of injuries received by the collision on the Louisville and Nashville railroad in which, it will be remembered, Col. Motley and wife were severely injured. It was thought at the time of the accident that Mr. Skiles was but slightly hurt, and it will be a source of regret to his many friends here to learn that his injuries are likely to prove much more serious than was apprehended. We trust, however, that he may speedily recover, and soon afford his friends the pleasure of again greeting him on the streets of Bowling Green.

Green River Panograph.

MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS.—On Monday last the directors of the M. & L. R. R. left in city for Millersburg, for the purpose of locating a depot at that place and the transaction of other business. The site selected was at the foot of Broadway, near the McKim House, it being the wish of a majority of the citizens. It is the intention of Mr. J. W. Muller to commence immediately building a depot, and he has already a large quantity of lumber for that purpose. It was decided by the board to push the road through vigorously to Paris, and it is thought that it can be accomplished in seven or twenty days.

There was a committee appointed to purchase necessary machinery to be placed in the machine shop at this place.

Myrtle Bulletin.

METILDA HERON LEAVES ON THE STAGE.—In her performance in the St. Louis Opera House last evening, Miss Metilda Heron gave sorrowful evidence of insanity. It is well known that Miss Heron has encountered great trouble within the past few years, but no indication that her mind was wandering has been made public. Mr. D. B. had given her the use of his opera house for her reappearance after two years absence from the stage, and her manner on this occasion bordered on the ludicrous. The particulars are of such a sorrowful nature that we refrain from publishing them until more definite information has been received. The many friends of Miss Heron will be shocked at this intelligence. —New York Mail.

A LARGE GREY EAGLE.—Mr. Thos. L. Dean of Mercer county, killed, on the 24th inst., a large grey eagle under the following circumstances: Mr. Dean was out hunting rabbits, and had shot one. The eagle, which had been soaring about several hundred feet, saw the rabbit and darting down reached the ground close to where the rabbit lay. The bird being within gunshot of Mr. Dean, he fired upon it instantly. From tip to tip of the wings the measurement is seven and a half feet. The talons are more than two inches long and when extended would span a space of ten inches. The weight of the bird is over eighteen pounds. The talons are on exhibition at this office, where the curious may see them for the next day or two. It is understood, that the specimen is intended for the museum of the Kentucky University. —Lexington Press.

The first National Bank of Springfield, Kentucky, did a heavy business on Monday last, to-wit:

Ninety-five checks cashed, amounting to $25,599 74
Deposits received 25,132 7
Profits 369 02

Besides the above, one hundred dollars worth of tickets in the Louisville Library drawing were sold. —Springfield Kentucky.

(From the Woodford Weekly.)

RETURNS.—Company A, 5th Kentucky cavalry, C. S. A. (Campbell's old company) will have a reunion and supper at the Versailles House on the 14th of December. A nice time is looked for, as there will probably be a large attendance. All the members are invited, and are expected to be present.

STODEN DEATH.—Hon. Samuel Stevenson, son of Judge William Stevenson, of this county, died suddenly at his home in Vandalia, Ill., on Monday evening last. Mr. S. was about 50 years of age and leaves a wife and several children.

DIED.—Near Mortonsville, in this county, on Sunday last, a young man named James McFall.

A good many hogs were driven through here during the week, on their way to market, and we believe most of the hogs of this county have now been sold. The price paid ranged from $3 75 to $4, mostly the latter figure.

Charley Burton, living in the southern portion of this county, had a calf dropped on his place about two weeks ago that weighed 102 pounds. Who can beat that?

WINCHESTER AS A CATTLE MARKET.—Winchester is an undoubtedly the best cattle market in Kentucky, with the exception of the cities of Louisville and Lexington. Cattle are brought here from every quarter, and offered for sale on our county cattle lots. Nearly every county in our State has a large number of cattle here, and we always have them from all the surrounding counties, and from various counties in the State. —Clark County Democrat.

For all plumbing or gas fitting, call on Oscar Seeley, St. Clair street. Satisfaction guaranteed.

We are reminded by a hopeful exchange that 1872 is Leap year, on which occasion the K. K. will leap out of power—whereat all good people will leap for joy. There are to be two eclipses of the moon, two of the sun and one of Gen. Grant—latter will be total and visible in all parts of the United States. The new year begins on Monday, which is to give the girls a fair start in the race for Leap year privileges. —Green River Panograph.

If the recent lynching and attempted lynching in Indiana had occurred in any Southern State, does any one suppose that Grant would not immediately have suspended the Libus corpus and declared martial law? The South would have been Ku-Kluxed. But it is a less all the difference in the world where the Ku-Kluxers live. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Four Evils.—Whoever habitually uses any alcoholic beverage as a "stappler" will be likely to suffer from four evils, viz: an over-dose of food in the stomach, impaired ability to digest it, pains of dyspepsia, and a doctor's bill. Dr. WALKER'S VEGETABLE VINEGAR BITTERS, taken at bedtime for restorative of the age, without ever touching the palate or irritating the stomach, restores a healthy appetite, purifies the blood, and thus, instead of causing four evils confers four inestimable benefits.—4w.
